

I'd love to get a job in the public sector but I haven't worked for a while

I want to begin a career at the IOPC but I haven't got any experience

I want to work at the IOPC but don't know if it's right for me

IF YOU'RE FROM A BLACK OR ASIAN BACKGROUND, THEN THE IOPC ASPIRING PROFESSIONALS PROGRAMME MAY BE FOR YOU!

We're inviting applications for our Aspiring Professionals Programme. This is a four-week course where you will gain work experience at the IOPC and learn helpful skills through workshops and team activities. You will also receive individual coaching to help you develop in your career.

- learn about communication, presenting in public and having a growth mindset
- gain skills in job-searching and interviews
- achieve the satisfaction of completing a community-focused project
- boost your CV by completing the course
- gain work experience in a high-profile government organisation
- receive a living wage while you learn

This programme is open to all. It would particularly suit people going through a career break or are care leavers. We are also seeking people from a black or Asian background.

If you'd like to know more, please contact campaigns@policeconduct.gov.uk